50th Anniversary

This is our 50th year Anniversary, and we are looking forward to our celebrations. This means that this is the year of Jubilee. Leviticus 25:1 says, "You shall sound a ram's horn abroad on the tenth day of the seventh month; on the day of atonement you shall sound a horn all through your land. You shall thus consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim a release through the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you. (Lev 5:1-4, 8-10 NASB) It is a time of liberty, restitution and simple living. It was a time of rest from labour. In the book of Luke, Jesus "stood up to read and they handed him the scroll of the prophet Isaiah. Unrolling the scroll, he found the place where it is written, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight to the blind, to set the oppressed free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour." (Luke 4:19)

The Jubilee is fulfilled in Jesus who has come to forgive our debts, restore relationship between God and people, provide freedom from sin and rest to all believers. This is the wonderful Good News – the message of New Life to our Community.

I cannot wait to see lots of friends – old and new – at our celebrations over the weekend of the 18th, 19th and 20th of October. It will be a wonderful time of sharing stories, reacquainting with old friends and honouring our church history. But just as importantly, it will be a time to look forward to our future and take hold of the vision set before us. I believe that God has given us all we need to fulfil the call he has on each of us individually, and collectively. This anniversary is a pivotal time for us as God takes us into a new decade. May the years to come bring a time of growth, revival and new life to our community as many find their hope and salvation in Jesus.

Book Review

HEALING PRAYER - Reginald Cherry MD

In this brief but insightful book, Dr Reginald Cherry describes his journey from a devout Christian in his youth through secularisation in medical school through to a conviction that prayer is an effective and important part of healing. He asks, in light of compelling evidence, why good medical practice should not include both the natural and the supernatural. Thus, his approach with patients is to obtain thorough medical information about them, and then to pray for God's guidance. Based on sound biblical study, he talks about each person having their own particular "pathway to healing". For some, this will be miraculous healing through prayer alone. For others, it may be surgery, or prescription medications, natural remedies, or a combination of all the above. Prayer is the absolute constant, along with the collection of detailed medical background information.

His six biblical foundations for healing are: 1) God wants us to be healed, 2) the price for our healing has already been paid, 3) be persistent in seeking to be healed, 4) develop a "feisty" attitude (meaning a proactive, focused attitude that refuses to give up), 5) find your unique pathway to healing, and 6) God uses the natural and the supernatural to heal.

A weakness of this book would be that the ability to effectively minister healing on these methods, speaking to specific "mountains" in the name of Jesus, would seem to require at least a functioning knowledge of biology and medical options. Would God reveal a specific medical condition to someone who had no understanding of such things? Maybe. God can do anything.

We have often said that God can work through the medical profession. This book offers a very encouraging faith perspective with regard to healing.
