20th May 2020 - Week 9

I am really loving just chewing over Romans 8. This chapter is so full of wonderful truths. We are no longer condemned, but free from the power of sin over our lives. We can now be controlled by the Holy Spirit working in us because through Jesus we have been made right with God. We are no longer fearful slaves, but faithful sons because we have been adopted into His family. We get to look forward to future glory with hope and expectation. We can rejoice because God causes all things to work together for good for those who love him and are called according to His purpose. And oh, there is so much more!

This week's message will be based on verses 31-39. We know that God is for us. We have been given right standing with God, and the devil can no longer accuse us, for Jesus died, and rose again for us – and now intercedes for us at God's right hand. And best of all, we can be assured that nothing can ever separate us from the love of God. Please take time to re-read this wonderful chapter and ask the Holy Spirit to fill you with His revelation as you ponder over each verse.

I do hope everyone is still doing well. We are all now looking forward to restrictions being eased. For the time being, we will still be holding Church online, going live each Sunday. We will slowly open up the service, but we still want to keep everyone safe and well, and do not want to rush things. We are holding prayer meeting on Wednesday morning, and some small groups are getting together, following the appropriate protocols. If you want to attend any of these meetings, please contact the host, and find out if your particular event is running. Numbers will be limited.

Anyway, keep up the amazing work. Stories of encouragement and answered prayer are flowing through. If you are struggling in any way, please contact us, and we will be sure to get back to you.

God bless you and keep you.

Love to you all,

Glenda & Joe.
